THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
WE PRAY FOR OUR DECEASED IN NOVEMBER

Daylight savings time ends next weekend. The afternoons grow dark much earlier. November arrives on Tuesday, and it is the last month of the Church's Liturgical year.

November begins with two important feast days that set the mood for the entire month. Tuesday, November 1, All Saints Day, is a Holy Day of Obligation. We pray that day especially to all the uncanonized Saints living in heaven and on earth.

Wednesday, November 2, is All Souls Day when we especially remember and honor all of our deceased loved ones, praying that we will join them one day with all the other Saints in heaven.

Here at church every day in November, we will pray at every Mass for all of your deceased whose names you have asked us to pray for on your All Souls Day envelopes.

In a very special way, on this Wednesday evening, All Souls Day, at 7:00 PM at our annual Memorial Mass, we will honor and pray for everyone who has died in our parish during this last year.

We also continue praying for all who have lost their lives because of the September 11, 2001 tragedy as well as those who have been killed in the Iraq and Afghanistan wars. On Friday, November 11, Veterans Day, we will pray for all our soldiers who are bravely serving today in these war-torn countries and for all of our service Veterans.

November is the month where the Church reminds us that our lives here on earth always end with death, and that every one of us should always be preparing ourselves spiritually to meet Jesus at the defining moment of our own death. We have an understandable natural fear of death because, more often than not, it involves physical pain and suffering beforehand. None of us want to feel our bodies and minds going downhill. But again, more often than not, this happen to us before we die. But even while we may experience this happening in our bodies, we can and should be growing closer to Our Lord all the time. Our longer experience of this life should hopefully give us the grace of more wisdom as we come closer and closer on our lifelong journey towards meeting Jesus face to face.

In a more profound sense, beyond our natural fear of pain and death, we ask God to help us realize in faith that as long as we are trying our best to love Him and to love our neighbor as ourselves that ultimately we need not be afraid of death at all. Death becomes for us the moment when we meet Jesus Christ and when He brings us to the fullness of our salvation in the Kingdom. We know that Our Lord has blessings beyond our imagination in store for those who love Him, and who love and serve Him when we serve the least of His brothers and sisters, the people who are in need (Matthew 25: 40).

Please join us on Wednesday evening at 7:00 PM, if you can, for our annual Memorial All Souls Day Mass for everyone who died in our parish this past year. Come and pray together with our families who have lost loved ones this year.

Please observe November with your family and fellow parishioners as the Church's special season to pray for all of our dead, to prepare ourselves spiritually to accept our own death in God's good time, and to accept the Church's teaching on respect for the life of every human being from conception until natural death. May all of our deceased family members, friends and parishioners be with Our Lord in glory forever one day, in His Kingdom

God Bless, Father Herb

ELECTRONIC GIVING WITH FAITH DIRECT

We invite you to join Faith Direct, our parish's electronic eGiving program. Our to-do-lists can get pretty long but Faith Direct's eGiving would give you one less thing to remember each week – no more envelopes to find and checks to write before you go to Mass. Visit www.faithdirect.net and use our church code: NJ745 or call 1-866-507-8757.

99 families are enrolled with eGiving. Our 2016 target is 125. We're getting closer.

Thank you for continuing to support our parish family!
God Bless You,

Father Herb and our

REMEMBER YOUR DECEASED IN NOVEMBER
WITH ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES
AND OTHER WAYS TO GIVE US NAMES OF YOUR DECEASED

Our regular collection envelope packets have an All Souls Day, November 2, collection envelope with lines for you to write down the names of your deceased loved ones whom you want us to remember at all of our parish Masses in November. This is the month when the entire Church especially honors and prays for all our deceased. All of our All Souls envelopes are placed together on the altar with the names of our deceased so that we, as a parish family, can pray for them at every Mass in November.

For the convenience of our families who do not receive church envelopes into your home, we have All Souls Envelopes on the tables in the church entrance where you can write down the names of your deceased and make an offering in their memory.

Families in our e-Giving program may find these envelopes helpful as well.

All families are welcome to email the rectory with the names you want remembered on our altar for November. You can also bring your names to the Rectory Office so that they will go on the altar for November. May all of our deceased rest in peace. Amen.

AN INSIGHT TO THE SCRIPTURE READINGS: 31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The first reading: “The Book of Wisdom” – written about 100 years before the birth of Jesus, its author is unknown and the entire book is a spiritual reflection on humanity’s relationship with God and one another.

Jericho – a prosperous trade and agriculture village near Jerusalem and a popular place for tax collecting.

Zacchaeus – the name means “clean”.

“chief tax collector” – not only was Zacchaeus a simple tax collector, but Saint Luke tells us he was the “chief” tax collector of his time! This meant that Zacchaeus was an extremely wealthy due to his position collecting taxes from his fellow Jews for the Roman authorities and the local Jewish rulers. As with all tax collectors of the time – there was always an extra “administrative charge” they included for themselves!!

Sycamore tree – why would Saint Luke tell us that Zacchaeus specifically climbed not any tree by a “sycamore tree”!! It’s only a guess, but for the Evangelist Luke – every work/image has a spiritual/faith meaning to it! A Sycamore tree may be compared to a fig/maple tree – large leaves, branches easy to climb and hide in for no one to see. Perhaps, Zacchaeus thought he could see Jesus and hide from Him at the same time. But no one can hide from the Lord!

SAVE THE DATE – BLOOD DRIVE – NOVEMBER 26TH

Eighty percent of the blood donations given to the Red Cross are collected at mobile blood drives set up at community organizations, companies, high schools, colleges, places of worship or military installations. The remaining 20 percent are collected at fixed Red Cross donor centers. On Saturday, November 26th Saint Peter’s is sponsoring its annual Blood Drive.

Watch the bulletin for further details. Won’t you help save a life?

SAINT PETER’S BOOK CLUB-JANUARY 6TH

The Book Club will meet on January 6, 2017. We will discuss the book The Kitchen House by Kathleen Grissom. Everyone is welcome to attend. Coffee, tea and dessert will be served.

Mensaje del párroco:

En noviembre oramos por nuestros difuntos

El horario de verano termina el próximo fin de semana. Las tardes se hacen oscuras más temprano. El mes de noviembre llega el martes, y es el último mes del Año Litúrgico. Noviembre comienza con dos fiestas litúrgicas importantes. El martes, 1^{ro} de noviembre, Día de Todos los Santos es día de precepto. Oramos en ese día especialmente por los santos no canonizados viviendo en el cielo y en la tierra. El miércoles, 2 de noviembre, es el Día de los difuntos cuando de forma especial recordamos y honramos a todos nuestros queridos difuntos, orando para que algún día nos unamos a ellos con todos los demás santos en el cielo. Durante todo el mes de noviembre, aquí en la iglesia, oramos en cada Misa por todos los difuntos que usted anotó en su sobre del Día de los Difuntos. De una manera muy especial, el miércoles por la noche, a las 7:00 pm en nuestra Misa de recordación anual, honraremos y oraremos por todos los que han fallecido en nuestra parroquia durante el último año. También continuamos orando por todos los que perdieron sus vidas durante la tragedia del 11 de septiembre, y todos los que han sido matados en las guerras de Iraq y Afganistán. El viernes, 11 de noviembre, Día de los veteranos, oraremos por los soldados que valientemente sirven en países destruidos por la guerra y por todos nuestros veteranos.

En noviembre, la Iglesia nos recuerda que nuestras vidas aquí en la tierra culminan con la muerte; y que siempre debemos estar preparados espiritualmente para encontrarnos con Jesús, en ese momento decisivo de nuestra muerte. Tenemos miedo natural a la muerte, porque casi siempre conlleva dolor y sufrimiento de antemano. Ninguno de nosotros desea experimentar que nuestros cuerpos y mentes vayan cuesta abajo. Pero tarde o temprano, ésto sucede antes de morir. Pero aunque eso le ocurra a nuestros cuerpos, podemos y debemos crecer todo el tiempo más y más cerca a nuestro Señor. Nuestra larga experiencia de vida, nos debería de dar la gracia de mayor sabiduría, al acercarnos en nuestro caminar a encontrarnos cara a cara con nuestro Señor.

En un sentido más profundo, por encima de nuestro miedo natural al dolor y la muerte, le pedimos a Dios nos ayude a darnos cuenta que mientras estamos tratando lo mejor de nosotros por amarlo y amar al prójimo, no tenemos que temerle a la muerte en lo absoluto. La muerte se convierte en el momento supremo en que nos encontramos con Jesucristo y El nos lleva a la plenitud de nuestra salvación en el Reino. Sabemos que nuestro Señor tiene bendiciones almacenadas más allá de nuestra imaginación, para los que le aman y que aman y le sirven cuando servimos a los más pequeños de sus hermanos y hermanas, las personas que están en necesidad (Mateo 25, 40).

Por favor, únase a nosotros en la noche del miércoles a las 7:00 PM, si le es posible, para nuestra Misa de recordación anual del Día de los difuntos, por todos los que murieron en nuestra parroquia el pasado año. Venga y oremos juntos con nuestras familias que han perdido seres queridos este año. Por favor, observe noviembre con su familia y amigos feligreses como una estación especial de la Iglesia para orar por todos nuestros difuntos, para prepararnos espiritualmente en aceptar nuestra propia muerte en el tiempo de Dios, y aceptar las enseñanzas de la Iglesia de respetar la vida de todos los seres humanos desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural. Que todos los miembros difuntos de su familia, amigos y feligreses estén con el Señor en la gloria eterna de Su Reino. Dios los bendiga, Padre Herb

CELEBRATION OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK
SAINT PETER THE APOSTLE CHURCH

November 5, 2016
11:00 A.M.

We warmly invite the sick and the elderly members of our Parish to participate in the grace of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

Saint James writes, "Is there anyone sick among you? Let the church pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord". (James 5:14) As a Parish Community, we are called to respond to these words. Helpers will be needed to provide transportation to and from the Mass, prepare and serve refreshments following it, and welcome and assist the frail members of our community. If you feel that you can be of help, please fill out the form below and mail.

ANY AND ALL MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF SAINT PETER'S PARISH COMMUNITY ARE WELCOME.
